

Biography for Chris Bowden

Chris, a town planner by profession, has lived in Manningtree since 2005. Over that time, he has become increasingly engaged in local environmental and social activities. Alongside his work with PACE Manningtree, he is a director of the East Anglia Permaculture Association C.I.C which delivers food forests in local schools and is a trustee of the Manningtree Food Bank. He also set up and ran a local market garden from which he has developed an interest in horticulture and food systems. He has completed a Royal Horticultural Society qualification which has further helped to develop his green(ish) fingers. He lives with his wife Amy and two children in Manningtree.

Chris is a trustee of PACE Manningtree and his present term ends 29 September 2027.
